

Faculty of Veterinary

Purpose of the Faculty

This Faculty aims to prepare:

- Qualified veterinary specialists who know how to care for animals and nature;
- Students to respect humans and animal rights;
- Students to be in a harmony with themselves, the world and with the values of the civilization of the Turkish world;
- Students to develop critical thinking, cultural expressions, and to comply with professional ethical standards;
- Students to obtain a good knowledge in accordance with laws, regulations and provisions in a field of veterinary medicine.

Employment prospective

Graduates of this faculty can find employment opportunities in departments and institutions of the ministry of agriculture and natural sources, ministry of health, municipalities, state economic enterprises, state planning organizations, companies producing feed, medicine, and vaccines, and on farms, and in being able to establish private clinics of their own.