

High School of Tourism and Hotel Management

Department of Tourism and Hotel Management

Purpose of the department

Hotel management is an integral part of the tourism industry. The first thing that tourists want to see in a hotel is great service that will meet all requirements. This is the reason why the hospitality industry is developing very rapidly, and there is a growing need for qualified personnel. The purpose of this department is to train highly qualified personnel for the hotel industry equipped with the knowledge of one, two or more foreign languages, with professional knowledge and skills.

Employment prospective

Owing to the theoretical knowledge and practical skills they acquire from courses in this department, graduates will have the opportunity of employment in different parts of the world's well-known hotels (at reception desks, departments of guest relations, economic departments, food and beverage services, sales and marketing departments, public relations and others).

Department of Travel Business and Tourism Guidance

Purpose of the department

Services in the field of tours and excursions form an integral part of the tourism industry. Travel agencies play an important role in the selection and organization of leisure activities. The purpose of this department is to train tourist guides and tour operators with professional knowledge and skills.

Employment prospective

Nowadays, there is a great need for qualified personnel in the field of tourism services. And the role of these services is constantly growing. In this regard, great importance is attached to the training of skilled labor. Graduates of this department, who have mastered the necessary management skills, have access to employment in travel agencies. Graduates of this branch will always be in demand in the tourism industry.

Department of Gastronomy and Culinary Arts

Purpose of the department

The organization of gastronomy and culinary arts is an important part of the tourism industry, and today this organization is rapidly developing. The purpose of this department is to prepare qualified specialists in the sphere of gastronomy and culinary arts with the necessary theoretical knowledge and practical skills.

Employment prospective

The organization of food and beverage services as a rapidly growing sector of the world economy, offers a wide range of employment opportunities for graduates of this department. This sector is not limited to the organization of food and beverages services in hotels and other places, but it can offer a wide range of services to restaurants, bars, entertainment centers, fast food, catering services, organizing tables and banquets.